The Roman alphabet minus q and x. The 1941 orthography known as zedacheg is in general use. The tilde marks nasalization. ch=/s, z/, c'h = /x, γ/, zh = /z/ (or /h/ in gwenedeg).

Numerals

1–10: unan, daou, tri, pevar, pemp, c'hwec'h, seizh, eizh, nav, dek; 11 unnek; 12 daouzek; 20 ugent; 21 unan warn-ugent; 30 tregont; 40 daou-ugent; 50 hanter-kant; 60 tri-ugent; 100 kant.

Following a numeral, the noun is in the singular: deg vloaz 'ten years' (bloaz 'year').

In expressions involving composite numbers and a nominal, there is a fixed order of sequence: unit – nominal – conjunction – decade/hundred: e.g. tri den ha tri-ugent 'three man and sixty', i.e. 'sixty-three men'; eizh vloaz ha daou-ugent eo 'eight year and twenty he-is', i.e. he is twenty-eight.
